

Covering your legal needs in Europe

As a member of the MSI Global alliance of independent legal and accounting firms, Lester Aldridge LLP can meet your requirements for legal advice in mainland Europe, and indeed across the globe. There are MSI member firms in most European countries and below are details of some of the European firms we have worked closely with.

So, if you have business in mainland Europe contact us and we will put together a cross border team to meet your legal needs. All our colleagues in mainland Europe are fluent in English.
